

Local Screening of

MISS REPRESENTATION

a documentary film by Jennifer Siebel Newsom

American youth are being sold the concept that women and girls' value lies in their youth, beauty, and sexuality. It's time to break that cycle of mistruth. Miss Representation advocates that all people should be equally represented in our media, that our voices should be heard, and that we should be valued for our talents, capacity as leaders, and ability to contribute to the world at large.

First Presbyterian Church of Maitland's Presbyterian Women and the Whole Health Ministry Group are sponsoring a screening of this documentary on:

Tuesday, February 28th at 6:30 p.m. in the Sanctuary, FREE for community parents, teachers, counselors, mentors, as well as middle and high school age students.

We hope that by watching the film and discussing it with each other we will all be able to help create a healthier and more spiritually positive environment for our girls and boys in this community and be a catalyst for future service in issues involving social justice.
